

Meet the Parents

Peter Bently

Illustrated by Sara Ogilvie

BOOK TALK CARDS

ABOUT THE BOOK

You may think your parents just boss you around and tell you what to do. And there's no getting away from it - they do have to do quite a lot of that! But there's so much more to them.

OUR THOUGHTS

"Delightful illustrations contain countless little jokes and complement laugh out loud text beautifully. A treat for children and parents alike."

THEMES:

Parent and Child

- Love
- Families

TIME TO TALK

- 1 List all the ways that parents are bossy. Are your parents bossy? What things do they make you do that you don't like?
- 2 Why can't children mend things like the parents? What do you do if you have broken something? Do you like mending or do you get someone else to do it?
- 3 In how many ways are parents useful? What can they do that little kids can't do? Is there something you can do that your parents can't do?
- 4 Why is dad a horse and mum a donkey? What other animals could parents be?
- 5 What kind of things do parents remember? What important things do your parents remember? Do you ever have to remind your parents to do something?
- 6 What do parents do to make things better when children are upset? How do your parents comfort you when you get upset? Do you ever comfort your parents if they are upset?
- 7 Do you think it is easy being a parent? What part of being a parent is nice? What do you think is the hardest part of being a parent?

TAKE THE TEXT FURTHER WITH OUR TOP 5 TITLES TO CONTINUE THE THEME:

