ABOUT THE BOOK

Stella is astounded by the stars. But her brother Ryan is bored with space already. Less than a week into their family holiday on the Space Hotel orbiting Earth, he's moaning that there's nothing to do. Their parents suggest the two of them go on an excursion to the International Space Station Museum. But during the space walk, disaster strikes.

OUR THOUGHTS

"An exciting and easy to read space adventure with family dynamics thrown in. Perfect for reluctant readers and those needing dyslexia friendly books."

THEMES:

- Space travel

- Families

TIME TO TALK

- 1 This story takes place in space. Would you like to travel into space and why?
- 2 What do you think you would look forward to seeing or doing in your spaceship?
- 3 What would you include in a Space Hotel for your guest's enjoyment?
- 4 Ryan annoyed his sister Stella when he wasn't paying attention to the instructions given by Brad. Why do you think this was?
- 5 How do you think Stella felt as she saw her brother spinning away into outer space? What would you do in this situation?
- 6 Brad had given the space tourists incorrect information about their equipment and life support why was this so dangerous?
- 7 Why did Stella think Ryan could save the day because of his expertise on the video games he played?
- 8 Describe the emotions and feelings Ryan and Stella felt as they were hurtling towards the earth.
- 9 Both Stella and Ryan learnt much about themselves during their adventure. How do you think their view of each other, life and space changed after their trip?
