

TITLE: Bravo, Mr. William Shakespeare!

AUTHOR: Marcia Williams

INTEREST AGE: 7-12 Years

BOOKBAND: Dark Blue

OUR REVIEW: Marcia Williams has done it again.

Lively & amusing. Sure to be a hit.

ACTIVITIES:

Find out about William Shakespeare.

Write a biography of his life

Choose one of the plays in the book. Can you write it as a play script?

Remember to include stage directions.

Could you act it out?

Write a review of each Shakespeare play.

What happened in the story?

Who were the characters?

Did you like the play? Why/why not?

Read other versions of one of the plays and make comparisons.

Which did you like best? Why?

How is each version the same/different?

How did the illustrations affect your understanding?

Find out more about the language William Shakespeare used. Can you find the modern day equivalent of some of his phrases?

Write a character study for one of the characters from your favourite play.

Find out more about life in Shakespearean times.

Think about the buildings, fashion, lifestyle and education.

CAN YOU UNSCRAMBLE THE NAMES OF THESE SHAKESPEARE CHARACTERS AND PLAYS?

MOORE

TUJILE

MEBCHAT

TEMPTSHEET

THEMAL

TOTOMB

DO YOU KNOW THE MEANING OF THESE SHAKESPEAREAN PHRASES?

Green-eyed monster

Love is blind

A foregone conclusion

I will wear my heart upon my sleeve

All that glisters is not gold

Wild-geese chase

In the twinkling of an eye

At one fell swoop

Other books by Marcia Williams include...

