Lexi-Mae

Sitting alone feeling blue,
I wish I could see my friends,
How about you?
Trying to work for school but it's not going well...
I JUST WANTED TO YELL!!!
Mum's out working, dad work's home...
Yet I feel completely alone.
People often forget we young ones suffer too.
We didn't ask for this but neither did you.
2 year's later, I'm back at school.
I'm confident, I'm blossoming, I know what to do.
If I can get through this so will you.
This is my poem, I hope you've survived too.
