

Issue 2: Funny Facts!

Snap it! (p.2-3)

- 1 Which photo do you like best and why? Have you taken any good photos recently?

Eureka! (p.4-5)

- 2 Listen to the lion's roars in class by scanning the QR code. What do you think the two types of roars mean? Do you think it's the lions' way of talking to each other?
- 3 Read the article about Hari Budha Magar. His achievements are very impressive. What do you think his mindset is like? Have you ever climbed up a mountain or a really big hill?

Use What on Earth! Magazine to generate discussion with young readers

Funny facts! (p.6-11)

- 4 Which is the funniest fact?
- 5 Which fact surprises you the most?
- 6 The fact about Napoleon and the rabbits is very funny! Have any of the class heard of Napoleon? Find out who he was together.
- 7 How do you think scientists discovered some of the funny facts?
- 8 Are there any facts that make you want to find out more?

Look inside a...

submarine! (p.12-13)

- 9 Would you like to spend weeks living underwater on a submarine?
- 10 What would the biggest challenges be?
- 11 Would there be anything good about living on a submarine?
- 12 What are the advantages of having submarines in the Navy do you think?

Map it (p.14)

- 13 Do you know what the longest river in Britain is?

Pirates in numbers... (p.15)

- 14 What pirate fact surprises you the most?
- 15 Do you go to bed earlier or later than the crew on Black Bart's ship? Why do you think they had to go to bed so early?

Listified! (p.16-17)

- 16 This section is about clever animals that use tools. There has been a news article recently about an animal that doesn't appear on this list that's been observed using tools. Can you find out what animal it was, what the tool was, and why they used it?

Puzzles and games! (p.20-24)

- 17 Stop everything and do the quiz (p.22) together as a class.
- 18 Allow children to go through the magazine at their leisure, filling in the puzzles during reading for pleasure time if they would like to.
